Re: MUR 4902: Response to the Complaint of Phyllis Kim Doom Filed Against Quayle 2000 and William R. Neale, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Turley:

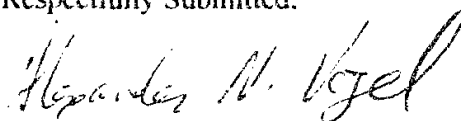

On June 23, 1999, you informed the Quayle 2000 Committee ("Quayle 2000") of an administrative complaint filed by Phyllis Kim Doom ("Complainant") against it and its Treasurer, William R. Neale. This letter responds to that complaint.

On March 9, 1999, Quayle 2000 received two $1,000 cashier's checks in the names of Robert and Myra Glenda Ossenberg respectively. In accordance with Commission regulations, Quayle 2000 sent Mr. and Mrs. Ossenberg a letter requesting additional information and verification of contribution attribution. As this request for information was not returned, Quayle 2000 did not submit the contributions in question for matching fund qualification.

On June 21, 1999, Mr. Ossenberg contacted Quayle 2000 and requested a refund of the $1,000 cashier's check originally attributed to Myra Glenda Ossenberg. Quayle 2000 issued Mr. Ossenberg a refund on June 21, 1999 as evidenced by the attached letter and check receipt.

The complaint contains no evidence of any violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act by Quayle 2000 and its Treasurer. Accordingly, the Commission should promptly dismiss MUR 4902 as to these parties.

Respectfully Submitted.
